

Ancient Scribe

Game 10 August 1009

The village of Bipa has been attacked by a potential new power in the North, the Durotriges having sent an Infantry force of some 2000 men have captured the village against very weak defences.

The economics of at least one country have been stabilised enough for them to start thinking about gaining further lands. We will see in the coming months if they have any success in their ambition to rule their region of the land.

Sea traffic remains high, with both military and civil craft becoming more frequent on the high seas. It looks like only a matter of time before there is a major clash of sea faring arms in the struggle to control the fishing rights.

Jason's Bit

I am continuing to advertise Ancient Empires, with (hopefully) an advert in Wargames Illustrated and a heightened presence on forums. I will advertise in Miniature Wargames in the next available slot they have. I am hoping to gain a few more players for the game, as well as fill the open slots in Company Commander. The web site is a perfect tool for this, and I will update the AE page as soon as I can.

In the mean time, The web site has interactive messages, and the ability to submit turns via email. I hope you will all take advantage of this facility when you can.

With some luck(skill?) I am hoping to get a message board up and running. Would this interest anyone? Anyway, that's it for another month.

Jason.