Game 10

June 1009

On the Military front this month, all is quiet. However, we are reliably informed that intensive training is being carried out in both the Lascivii and Savage Intent camps, and that much movement has been carried out.

At sea, the control of sea lanes is an area that will soon create conflict, as to who controls fishing, now that many Empires rely upon the fishing fleets to feed their ever expanding Armies. Indeed, the battle on land may be decided at sea, as to who controls the fishing grounds.

Jason's Bit

Hope fully, you will have seen the web site in the last weeks. If not, go to www.jason-oates-games.com

I have added a message board to the contacts page, so you can leave messages there.

This newsletter will be posted on the site as soon as it is finished ready for you to download. In the coming weeks, I am hoping to start up web based orders submission for you. I am still learning how this is achieved, so bear with me.

Don't forget that you don't need to send cheques or postal orders anymore (unless you want to) as I have a Paypal account set up using my email address as account name.

jason@jason-oates-games.com

You should use this email address for contacting me also from now on.

The first adverts for the new game of Company Commander have just gone to press hopefully, so I am anticipating some additions (addicts) to the CC fold. If you want to join the action, let me know.

Ok, that's it for another month.

Regards Jason.
