

Ancient Scribe

Game 10 March 1010

Jason's Bit

For those experienced players, you will see a blast from the past in your adjustments this month. Yes, after a hasty improvisation last month the Market Trading Report is back. Just fill it in and send it back with your next turn.

Our thanks for the Wedding Invitation. It was a nice trip to sunny Cornwall and we wish Rick and Heather all the best.

Those of you who buy war games magazines will see an advert for Company Commander and the web site in general in Miniature War games. Another advert will appear in the next Flagship. This will hopefully generate some interest in both games and supply you all with new victims.

Ok that's it for another month.

Regards Jason.
